

Make up of Work Missed

Make up work procedures will vary by the course and/or program of study. This information will be located in the course syllabus and addressed by instructors during course introductions.