

ELCR 1820 : Electrical Lineworker Workplace Skills

This course will familiarize the student with the importance of working together and team building. Topics include basic tools in the problem solving process, change in the workplace, developing and maintaining a positive image, resume writing, and developing job interview skills.

Credits 2