

FISH 1001 : Basic Health & Safety in Commercial Fishing

The Basic Health and Safety course aims to provide with the knowledge and skills required to work safely on board a commercial fishing vessel. The course covers basic health and safety issues, CPR, personal protective equipment, as well as firefighting and fire prevention.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

Program Admission.