

FORS 1040 : Forest Protection

Provides experience in identification and control of destructive and harmful agents in the forest environment. Topics include: detrimental growth factors; biological and economic factors of forest pests, chemical pest control; classification and description of wildfires; and firefighting methods, tools and equipment.

Credits 3