

MATH 1133 : Calculus III

This course includes the study of functions defined on regions in two or three dimensional space and that have values in one, two, or three dimensional space. Topics include partial derivatives, vector fields and analysis, multiple integrals, and applications of these topics.

Credits 4

Prerequisites

MATH 1132