

MKTG 2000 : Global Marketing

This course introduces opportunities and international strategies employed in the global marketplace. Topics include: the environment of international marketing, analyze international marketing opportunities, international market entries, design an international marketing strategy, and career paths in international marketing.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

MKTG 1100