

SURG 2240 : Seminar in Surgical Technology

Prepares students for entry into careers as surgical technologists and enables them to effectively prepare for the national certification examination. Topics include: employability skills and professional preparation.

Credits 2