

Transfer GPA

The Transfer GPA is calculated using credit accepted from other institutions. Credits transferred count toward the requirements for graduation, but are not included in the Institutional GPA. The Transfer GPA is not used to determine Academic Standing. The Transfer GPA is used for consideration of program admission into competitive entry programs.