

ACCT 1115: Computerized Accounting

Emphasizes operation of computerized accounting systems from manual input forms. Topics include: company creation (service and merchandising), chart of accounts, customers transactions, vendors transactions, banking activities, merchandise inventory, employees and payroll, and financial reports. Laboratory work includes theoretical and technical application.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

ACCT 1100

COMP 1000

Program: Accounting