

ARTS 1101: Art Appreciation

Explores the visual arts and the relationship to human needs and aspirations. Students investigate the value of art, themes in art, the elements and principles of composition, and the materials and processes used for artistic expression. Well-known works of visual art are explored. The course encourages student interest in the visual arts beyond the classroom.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

minimum ACCUPLACER Reading score of 64 and minimum ACCUPLACER Sentence Skills (Writing) of 70

Program: Fine Arts