

BUSN 2140: Expert Word Processing

This course expands on basic word processing knowledge and skills. Topics will include managing document options and settings, creating advanced documents, and using advanced tools to create document elements and references. This course is designed to prepare the student to take the related Microsoft Office Specialist certification exam.

Credits: 3

Program: Business Technology