

DRFT 2040: Highway Design

This course provides students with a basic understanding of design and construction of roadway and highway systems. Major topics include: geometric design, drainage design and computation, storm water management, and erosion control.

Credits: 3

Program: Drafting