

ELCR 2600 : Telecommunication & Data Cabling

Introduces the basic of cable installation from the initial site survey to splicing cable and making connections. Through laboratory activities, students perform the basic tasks of a cable installer. Topics include: basic standards and practices, cable rating and performance, cable installation and management, testing and troubleshooting, industry standards, pulling cable, and understanding blueprints.

Credits 3

Prerequisites

ELCR 1010

ELCR 1020