

FORS 1580 : Wildlife Management

Develops a basic understanding of the classification of animals and habitat. Emphasizes effects of forest management on wildlife. Topics include: animal classification, adaptation, and evolution; population parameters; basic principles of game management; and managing the forest for wildlife.

Credits 3