

MATH 1101: Mathematical Modeling

Emphasizes functions using real-world applications as models. Topics include fundamental concepts of algebra; functions and graphs; linear, quadratic, polynomial, exponential, and logarithmic functions and models; systems of equations; and optional topics in algebra.

Credits: 3

Prerequisites:

minimum NextGen ACCUPLACER Algebra score of 245.

Program: Mathematics