WELD 1000: Introduction to Welding Technology

This course provides an introduction to welding technology with an emphasis on basic welding laboratory principles and operating procedures. Topics include: industrial safety and health practices, hand tool and power machine use, measurement, Oxyacetylene welding and Welding Career potentials.

Credits: 4
Program: Welding and Joining Technology